The Baptist Union of Great Britain - October 2014

Wednesday 1st	Nominations Committee Meeting of the Nominations Committee	Telephone Conference Call	9:00am - 10:30am
Saturday 4th	Equip EQUIP is an exhibition designed to support local Christians and Churches grow in their discipleship, mission and ministry. The day brings together a variety of organisations who will bring resources to buy and give away in the exhibition space. / Alongside the exhibitors there will be a programme of seminars and workshops for people to be further resourced. / www.ctal.org.uk	The Exhibition Hall, Lincolnshire Showground	9:30am - 4:30pm
Tuesday 7th	BMS Council of Reference - Meeting of BMS Council of Reference - Holiday Inn, Birmingham
Saturday 11th	EMBA Autumn Association Day - Speaker: The Revd Dr Stephen Holmes - Broadway Baptist Church, Derby
Sunday 12th	SEBA Association-wide Celebration - Association-wide Celebration - River Centre, Tonbridge
Monday 13th	National Settlement Team - Meeting of NST - Baptist House/Windmill Farm Conference Centre
Tuesday 14th	National Settlement Team - Meeting of NST - Baptist House/Windmill Farm Conference Centre
	Baptist Steering Group meeting - BSG meeting - Windmill Farm Conference Centre
Wednesday 15th	Baptist Steering Group meeting - BSG meeting - Windmill Farm Conference Centre
	Third Annual Sam Sharpe Lecture Speaker: Dr Delroy Reid Salmon / Title: Somebody has to Pay	The House of Praise, Bristol	7:00pm - 9:30pm
Saturday 18th	Anti-slavery day - For information, see: http://www.antislaveryday.com - Nationwide
	Legacy, Learning from the past, Embracing the Future By invitation only: Key Caribbean activists meet and share ideas on matters of theology, education, integration and leadership with young people, empowering the future generation. / This event forms part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission.	Highgate Baptist Church, Birmingham	6:30pm - 9:30pm
Sunday 19th	Bicentenary Celebration Services - Three services at to mark and celebrate the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission. Speakers Karl Johnson (08:00 and 11:00 services) and Karl Henlin (18:30 service) - Cannon Street Memorial Baptist Church, Birmingham
	Healthcare Sunday - An opportunity to focus on, pray for and encourage church members working in healthcare / For information, see: http://www.healthcaresunday.org.uk - Nationwide
	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
Monday 20th	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
	Larger Churches Conference - Senior leaders of larger churches (180+) are invited to meet together for teaching and refreshment. - High Leigh Conference Centre
	Trustee Board - Meeting of Trustees - Baptist House
	Welcome and Bicentenary Celebration YBA event forming part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission	Sheffield and District Afro-Caribbean Community Association	7:00pm - 9:30pm

Tuesday 21st	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
	Larger Churches Conference - Senior leaders of larger churches (180+) are invited to meet together for teaching and refreshment. - High Leigh Conference Centre
	What makes for a Healthy and Inclusive Church? Leaders' Discussion: YBA event forms part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission	Cemetery Road Baptist Church, Sheffield	10:30am - 12:00pm
	Black and Ethnic Minority Women in Leadership - The Way Ahead YBA event forms part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission	New North Road Baptist Church, Huddersfield	5:00pm - 7:00pm
	Bicentenary Celebration YBA event forming part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission	Oakes Baptist Church, Huddersfield	7:00pm - 9:30pm
Wednesday 22nd	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
	Larger Churches Conference - Senior leaders of larger churches (180+) are invited to meet together for teaching and refreshment. - High Leigh Conference Centre
Thursday 23rd	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
	Black Theology in Britain Symposium Speaker Delroy Reid Salmon on 'Faith across the Atlantic: remapping the theological discourse / This event forms part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission.	Regent's Park College, Oxford	6:30pm - 9:30pm
Friday 24th	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
Saturday 25th	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide
	Celebrating 200 Years Speakers: Karl Johnson and Karl Henlin / An evening of celebration with a Caribbean meal. / This event forms part of the bicentenary celebration marking the relationship between the Baptist Unions of Jamaica and Great Britain, and BMS World Mission.	Perry Rise Baptist Church, London	6:30pm - 9:30pm
Sunday 26th	One World Week - The only way we can live for one world and care for the planet and its people is by working together with others. The issues of climate change, economic justice and communities living peacefully together are of concern to us all. One World Week is an opportunity, a space in which we can meet up, share concerns, hear each others' points of view and acknowledge shared values. / For information, see: www.oneworldweek.org - Nationwide		