As many churches organise a walk on Easter Monday, this initiative invites people to take part in a prayer walk around London on Monday 5 April 2010.

President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain, Pastor Kingsley Appiagyei, supports this initiative, which ties in with his presidential theme of praying for revival in our land. Also, within the London Baptist Association we recognise that prayer is critical to realise God's vision for our association, 'Making disciples –Sharing the Good News of Jesus'.

The Capital Ring Prayer Walk consists of 15 sections, which encircle London. Individuals, primarily Baptist ministers, have agreed to co-ordinate and lead the section closest to them and are inviting Baptist ministers and churches in the locality to join them.

They will pray for the needs of the local churches, their community, the city and the nation, particularly the upcoming General Election.

This is the first time that this initiative is being attempted and to date there are leaders for 10 of the 15 sections.

For further details on where and at what time to meet, please contact Kumar Rajagopalan at Siya\_kumar@talk21.com

We hope that this initiative will unite us in praying for our city and our nation.
