

Christian Enquiry Agency \(CEA\)

The Christian Enquiry Agency provides information for people who want to find out about the Christian faith and its founder Jesus Christ. The information is reliable, objective and given confidentially.

It does not just give a version of Christianity adhered to by one particular group of Christians ('denomination' or 'tradition'). Instead it attempts to explain and explore what Christians of all kinds believe.

CEA tries to respond to all enquirers by giving them what they ask for, and only what they ask for. It takes steps to ensure that no one is given information unsolicited. It does not seek to take the place of local churches.

The purpose of the Christian Enquiry Agency is to inform people about Jesus Christ and Christianity. It is our hope that men and women will take steps of faith toward a commitment to Jesus Christ as a result of what they discover. It is our prayer that having an active faith will improve their lives.

The Christian Enquiry Agency launched a new website in November 2010 to help people explore the Christian faith and the good news of Jesus Christ. It has a vast amount of information about what Christians believe, an opportunity to ask Christians to pray, questions people ask about faith, death, sex and so on, and a section which changes with the seasons
