

Guideline Leaflet M06: Grants for Building Work

We are often asked about whether the Baptist Union can provide grants to churches doing work on their buildings. Sadly the answer is “no we don’t” but, in an attempt to be a little more positive and helpful, we have put together this leaflet about some possible sources of funds.

This Guideline Leaflet is regularly reviewed and updated. To ensure that you are using the most up to date version, please download the leaflet from the BUGB website at www.baptist.org.uk/resources

The date on which the leaflet was last updated can be found on the download page.

M06: Grants for Building Work

These notes are offered as guidelines by the Legal and Operations Team to provide information for Baptist churches.

These notes can never be a substitute for detailed professional advice if there are serious and specific problems, but we hope you will find them helpful.

If you want to ask questions about the leaflets and one of the Baptist Trust Companies are your property trustees, you should contact them. They will do their best to help.

If your church property is in the name of private individuals who act as trustees they may also be able to help.

INTRODUCTION

We are often asked about whether the Baptist Union can provide grants to churches who are needing to do work on their buildings. Sadly, the answer is "no we don't" but, in an attempt to be a little more positive when saying no, we have put together this leaflet about some possible sources of funds.

For information on loans for building work see our leaflet M01: Loans to Churches. The Baptist Union Loan Fund can lend over £25,000 for purchasing property (including Manses), constructing a new church building or enlarging or renovating existing church buildings. Baptist Churches can also apply to the Baptist Building CIO (www.baptistbuilding.org) and, if appropriate, to the Particular Baptist Fund (www.pbfund.org.uk) A couple of Associations do have small grant schemes although most have loan funds some of which are interest-free.

WHERE TO START LOOKING FOR GRANTS

There are various trusts and grant-making organisations around the country that can be approached, and this leaflet gives information about the national ones which we are aware of. Some local research (e.g. library, other churches, local authority, local Council for Voluntary Service etc.) will reveal others.

Some local authorities have 'Big Society' funds so it may be worth investigating what's available from yours. These grants will only be available for initiatives that clearly benefit the local community.

Churches that have Listed Buildings to maintain probably have more chance of finding funding. In particular the Listed Places of Worship Grant Scheme provides grants towards VAT paid on repairs, maintenance and alterations to listed places of worship. For more information and application forms visit their website www.lpwscheme.org.uk or write to them at Topmark (LPOW), 160 Bath Street, Glasgow G2 4TB (Tel: 0800 500 3009) We also have a leaflet about the scheme LB05: Listed Places of Worship Grant Scheme

You should be aware that grants usually come with conditions. It is the responsibility of the Charity Trustees of the Church obtaining the grant to satisfy themselves that the conditions are reasonable and can be fulfilled. Some grant-making organisations will require the Church's Property Trustees to be party to a formal Agreement. If that is the case it is important to make sure that it is primarily the Charity Trustees and not the Property Trustees who enter into the covenants regarding the use and application of the grant moneys.

LOTTERY FUNDING

Some grants that are available come from the Lottery (e.g. Heritage Lottery Fund). Some Churches will refuse absolutely to be involved in any use of lottery money. Others will point out that in days of financial constraints when other grants are not available it is wrong not to use what funding is available. Both stands are valid. In the 1990s the Baptist Union Council decided that they could not actively encourage Baptist Churches to apply for lottery funding and recognised that it is for each local Church to determine their own policies on these matters. They also agreed that application for, or the receipt of, lottery funding would not of itself count against a church who applies for a grant from Home Mission or a loan from Baptist Union sources.

SOME HELPFUL PLACES TO LOOK

We will try and update this leaflet when we discover other sources of grants. If you know of other national funds that could be added to this list, please let us know.

Baptist Building CIO

Baptist Building CIO offers Empowering Change grants of £5,000 – £25,000. These are aimed at small scale standalone building projects for smaller churches (often in rural or deprived urban areas) where a grant will make a big difference to the project. In the last 2 years they've helped churches install disabled toilets, improve kitchens, create accessible entrances and upgrade electrics, transforming their buildings to bless the church and the local community. They have a vision to support local Baptist Church mission, and applications should show how a grant towards building costs will enable church mission strategy to become a reality. Full details of grant criteria and an application form can be found on their website www.baptistbuilding.org/grants. If you're planning a bigger project, they also offer loans up to £250,000; more details can be found at www.baptistbuilding.org/loans.

Allchurches Trust

This trust is the parent company behind Ecclesiastical Insurance from which it receives its income. In 2019 they made some changes to their grant scheme and now encourage any church to apply for their open grant programmes. Their grants normally support projects which meet one of their 'areas of funding focus' which are:

- Building communities, especially where they are hurting or broken
- Helping people, especially those in particular need, to flourish
- Growing churches, spiritually and numerically

They particularly favour projects which are innovative, ambitious in vision, broad in scope and have a clear focus on the potential positive impact on people and communities. They can help churches with the costs of building and restoration projects, repair of church fabric and church community initiatives. The application form is available from their website.

Bernard Sunley Charitable Foundation

An independent grant-making charity which offers one-off grants for capital projects including church community projects. They will often support projects which are about improving access for the disabled and modernising kitchens and toilets in line with Health and Safety regulations and the DDA. They generally provide small grants – most are between £1000 and £5000. They have an online application process via their website.

Churches need to be aware of the following: "We receive many requests for funding from churches; those that are successful in receiving a grant host a high proportion of secular activities (i.e. no connection at all with religion or spirituality) that are open access to their local community, as opposed to being accessed mainly by the congregation. Your application needs to provide strong evidence of the range of secular activities and the numbers involved."

Joseph Rank Trust

This Trust is specifically for promoting the Christian faith as it was originally set up by Joseph Rank as a practical expression of his strong Christian beliefs and his desire to advance the Christian faith and to help the less fortunate members of society.

The current Trustees have identified two main areas of interest, as follows:

- Projects that demonstrate a Christian approach to the practical, educational and spiritual needs of people of all ages.
- The adaptation of Church properties with a view to providing improved facilities for use by the church and its work in the community in which it is based.

Although their website does say that they only accept applications from registered charities, we have had confirmation from the Trust that they will accept applications for churches currently excepted from registration if they belong to BUGB. Any BUGB church that is not registered with the Charity Commission who wants to apply to this fund should explain that they are in membership with BUGB and are currently excepted from Charity Registration.

WEBSITES YOU MAY FIND USEFUL

www.fundingcentral.org.uk - is a website for charities, voluntary organisations and social enterprises. It includes information about applying for grants as well as having a search facility for relevant grant-making bodies. If your church has annual income under £100,000 then you can register for free. Others will need to pay £100+VAT www.fundsonline.org.uk is run by the Directory of Social Change (DSC) and, for a fee, you can search their comprehensive database of 4500 grant-making trusts. The annual fee is £350 + VAT for registered charities (for 1 user). Unregistered churches wanting you use this may want to ring DSC to explain that they are a charity but currently excepted from registration. They may then let you register at the charity rate. There is also an option for a week's subscription but their website doesn't say how much this is so you would need to contact them to find out more.

This is one of a series of Guidelines that are offered as a resource for Baptist ministers and churches. They have been prepared by the Legal and Operations Team and are, of necessity, intended only to give very general advice in relation to the topics covered. These guidelines should not be relied upon as a substitute for obtaining specific and more detailed advice in relation to a particular matter.

The staff in the Legal and Operations Team at Baptist House (or your regional Trust Company) will be very pleased to answer your queries and help in any way possible. It helps us to respond as efficiently as possible to the many churches in trust with us if you write to us and set out your enquiry as simply as possible.

The Legal and Operations Team also support churches that are in trust with the East Midland Baptist Trust Company Limited.

If your holding trustees are one of the other Baptist Trust Corporations you must contact your own Trust Corporation for further advice. A list of contact details is provided above. If you have private trustees they too should be consulted as appropriate.
