

Leaflet X01: Online Filing of Minister's tax return

Guidance Notes on the completion of the Minister's Tax Return

These notes are offered for guidance by The Baptist Union of Great Britain and have been compiled by Philip J Cooke FCA: Honorary Taxation Adviser to the Baptist Union of Great Britain.

Ministers of religion are still unable to use the free HMRC online filing facility for personal tax returns because it does not embrace the Minister of Religion pages (SA102M). HMRC have been asked whether ministers could opt to use the basic self assessment tax return (SA100), where the circumstances permit, since this would then enable them to use the HMRC online return facility, but a decision is still awaited and may be affected by the Making Tax Digital programme.

Many ministers have, over the years, chosen to use the software provided by GoSimpleTax who now offer ministers of religion a 25% discount off their normal price. Further information is available in a new leaflet which can be accessed at: info.gosimpletax.com/mor

The latest day for filing a tax return online is 31st January following the end of the tax year. If you have not already done so you will need to register with HMRC for online filing and this could take a couple of weeks or so. The online link is: www.online.hmrc.gov.uk/shortforms/form/CWF1ST?dept-name=CWF1&sub-dep

When completing the tax return (manually or online) ministers might care to refer to document X02 – Self Assessment and the Minister – which can be found on the BU web site.
