Coming back to my Father

This year's Day of Prayer may be different from your usual gathering. You may be holding your meeting over the internet, or you may be able to gather as a small group in a house or church building. You may be celebrating the Day of Prayer individually, perhaps agreeing with your group to all pray at the same time in your own houses.

Whatever your situation, please feel free to use the following materials, prepared by the Revd Pam Searle, to join with our sisters and brothers in celebrating the Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer this year. A Powerpoint is also available, together with a Prayer Guide from our sisters around the world.

Welcome

Online

Once everyone has joined into the zoom or electronic service, help attendees to feel welcome and relaxed by getting everyone to introduce themselves from their homes or their places of worship.

Gathering

If in a church/home setting have music playing in the background and spend a few minutes greeting each other.

Then the leader welcomes the congregation to the service with these words:

Leader

Our celebratory service this year is based on coming back to the Fathers' arms. We pray that Jesus will be at the heart of our service today and that He will hold us tenderly and will strengthen us and all Baptist women participating in this international event. We pray for women and young ladies who have lost their way from the Father's embrace and have and are experiencing forms of injustice in our communities that God would use this time to heal their wounds and will equip us to speak up into the injustice and make a difference in their lives.

Call to worship

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are!
1 John 3:1

Prayers

Loving Father

There are times when, no matter how I call you seem distant and silent.

When I simply cannot hear your voice

Give me courage for those times

To pray unceasingly, to cry out to you never ending.

Help me Jesus to understand your silence and that it is in those times I am becoming less so that you can become more.

Help me father to know your quiet still voice

Remind me Holy Spirit of the times you have spoken unmistakably to me and to others for me.

And let those times keep and sustain me until I hear your voice again.

Amen

Leader: Loving God

We come to you voiceless

Ashamed

Filled with pride

Looking backwards

Response: Help us Father to look forwards

Help us Father to say sorry for not speaking up

Forgive us Father we did not know what we were doing

Leader: Father we have not listened for your voice

We have not been patient

We have taken our lives into our own hands

We have gone our separate way,

Response: Father clear our minds so we only hear you

Give us strength to wait for you

Take our lives and your will be done

Have your way Lord

Leader: The LORD said, ‘Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by. ‘Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper’
(1 Kings 19:11-12, NIV)

Leader: The Lord gave Elijah clear instruction, to stand on the mountain in His presence, but He didn't come in the ways Elijah (or we) would have expected: in a gust of wind, or the tremors of an earthquake or even the burning heat of a fire. He came and continues to come to us in a gentle whisper.

Poem

It's hard to return
You might not accept me
It's hard to return
You might laugh at me
It's hard to return
You might reject me
Come back to me child
I will never forsake you
Come back to me child
I will always love you
Come back to me child
I delight in you

Prayer

Gracious God you came to us in fulfilment of your promises
Your every word wrapped in a child
You loved me so much that you gave up everything for me
Breaking down every barrier
I lost you for a little while
I'm sorry I turned away
I was alone, I come back to you Lord so that I might share your love and eternity
I come back to you Lord so that I might become one with you.
Teach me strength Lord help me accept your mercy and to embrace your blessing Lord
I know that you love me and I want to serve you Lord this day and everyday through Jesus Christ our Lord
