RESOURCES

Leading a Multicultural Church
 By Malcolm Patten (2016)
 A handbook for developing a healthy multicultural church community. Malcolm Patten, Senior Pastor of Blackmore Road Baptist Church in Waltham, east London, draws on his many years experience as a leader of multicultural congregations to equip ministers with a vision for unlocking the potential of such communities.

Building Cultural Intelligence in Church and Ministry
 By Douba O Oluigbo (Author House UK, 2016)
 Douba Oluigbo's comprehensive guide for helping the church more effectively relate and serve across cultural borders. Whether you're welcoming a community of refugees, travelling on a short-term mission assignment, building an equal family or simply interacting with an increasingly diverse society, this guide will help you love your neighbour. Douba is the minister of leading Blackmore Baptist Church.

African Voices: Towards African British Theologies
 By Louise Oduyoye (Langham Global Library 2017)
 Explores the significant presence of African Christians in Britain by giving voice to African parishioners operating in a British context. Susi Oduyoye is pastor of Woodbeck Central Baptist Church and founding director of Centre for Missiologies from the Baptist World.

Let Us Not Forget
 Study reflections for small groups to provide further reflection and interpretation on our Union's proposal for theory and its practical outworking. www.baptist.org.uk

Moving Stories
 Nine studies blending the biblical, historical and contemporary aspects of migration from people whose lives have been impacted by people movement. www.baptist.org.uk/movingstories

Online resources

Multicultural Church
 A six-week course for small groups to help develop healthy, integrated churches. www.baptist.org.uk/multiculturalchurch

Post-race People
 Four video-based study sessions filmed in British Baptist Churches, to help churches embrace the different cultures within them, to learn hospitality in a new way and to experience multicultural worship and prayer. www.baptist.org.uk/post-racepeople
